- A. Brief overview and outcomes of the project including the number of participants that completed the project.
- B. How did the project impact the lives of the participants?
- C. Was the project successful? How did you gauge success?
- D. Did you encounter any unanticipated challenges/benefits from your project?
- E. What is your future plan for this project?
- F. Share brief stories of those involved. (What kinds of successes, disappointments, steps forward or surprises will help us better understand the depth and breadth of your project?)
- G. Attach a year-end budget indicating expenses paid and, if any, remaining balance.
- H. Would you be willing to help replicate the project elsewhere in the state?
- I. Social Change Impact Evaluation:
Please describe how your project contributed to change on your issue and the results you achieved for the women and girls you serve. Please indicate as many of the five approaches as apply to your project. Be sure to describe progress made toward the proposed change referenced in your grant application.
 - a. Defining/Re-framing—the project created new definitional meaning or reframed the meaning of the issue.
 - b. Services to change individual behavior—the project provided services and benefits to individual women and girls that helped them change their lives and their futures.
 - c. Engaging more people in understanding, believing, advocating and/or acting on behalf of the issue.
 - d. Policy or Systems—the project resulted in changes in a law or in institutional systems or process.
 - e. Resistance or Deep Implementation—the project resisted efforts to undermine women's rights OR the project helped to deepen the implementation of an already accepted idea or law.
