

A lot to look forward to

2018 was a busy and productive year for IWF, and in 2019, we're looking to build off our many successes. We've already announced our newest cohort of Grant Partners (learn more about them here) and rolled out a brand new website (check it out here). Now, we're gearing up to celebrate an important milestone—our 25th anniversary!

As we look back on our organization's history, we're grateful to IWF's hard working founders and to all the individuals who have stood by our efforts throughout the past 25 years. To date, we've awarded more than $860,000 in grants to over 200 programs, benefiting thousands of women and girls in all 99 Iowa counties. We could not have done this without your continued support!

Speaking of grants...we're pleased to announce that the 2020 IWF Grant RFP will be available on our website beginning February 4. Click here to learn more information about our grant application process.
